

PARTNERSHIP DISPUTE

Disputes arise across a broad spectrum of relationships. There are two main factors that challenge that relationship, one of which is the human element of emotion, the other, is money. And nothing is more volatile than the combination of money and emotion. Those involved are typically strong-minded individuals who are unable to reach an amicable resolution. Below are relationship disputes that can arise from a personal and business situation.

SHAREHOLDER DISPUTE

Succession Planning
Uneven Sweat Equity/
Capital Contribution
Incompetence of an Owner
Disparities in Compensation
Differing of Opinions

FAMILY DISPUTE

Property Settlement
Financial Support
Multi-Generational

ESTATE DISPUTE

Inheritance/Will Issues
Heir Grievance
Breach of Fiduciary Duty

OWNERSHIP BREAKDOWN DISPUTE

Breach of Agreement
Unethical Practices
Concealment of Assets
Misaligned Philosophies
Unexpected Setbacks

"In any dispute, each side thinks it's in the right and the other side is demons." ~ Steven Pinker

In a partnership dispute, litigation is typically the course of action taken when the conflict takes on a serious tone and both parties are in non agreement.

RECEIVER

SPECIAL MASTER

An equitable remedy that allows the court to protect and preserve assets while the parties are in litigation. A neutral third party that provides a unique perspective to disentangle the conflict.

Resolute has experience acting as a court-appointed Receiver and Special Master for various matters involving:

Business Valuations

Settlement Mediation

Interim & Crisis Management

Financial Review and Oversight

Liquidation Proceedings

Continuity of Operations

Securing and Managing Assets
