

RESOLUTE PILLARS – LITIGATION SUPPORT

The Resolute team of professionals offer litigation support services and work in partnership with legal counsel to become an important resource in building a solid case. By evaluating, interpreting and calculating complex financial data, Resolute is able to present our findings in an objective and professional manner suitable for all phases of litigation from discovery through trial.

Our team has extensive experience analyzing financial information, locating supporting documentation, uncovering hidden assets, preparing reports and providing oral and written testimony. Resolute also offers financial and damage calculations/analysis for claims involving contract disputes, torts and intellectual property.

Resolute's litigation support services have been retained by many businesses and law firms in Arizona to perform the following services:

DAMAGE CALCULATIONS/ANALYSIS

A damage calculation and analysis is an important aspect of litigation or arbitration settlement and will determine the amount of profit lost between the calculated outcome and what is the actual resulting sum.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY DISPUTES

Intellectual property matters are creatively unique and need to be protected. With our cross-disciplined approach to IP disputes we provide solid, defensible analysis for sound business decisions.

INTEREST RATE CALCULATIONS

When choosing an appropriate cramdown interest rate to apply to a creditor's claim in a Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings, a thorough interest rate calculations should be performed to protect the interest of the creditors.

BUSINESS VALUATIONS

Determining a business value can be complex and requires preparation and thought. Resolute's approach to business valuations includes a deep understanding of assets, tax code, and GAAP as well as an analysis of financial statements and industry research.

EXPERT TESTIMONY

Expert testimony, whether needed in federal or state court, arbitration or mediation, effectively communicates findings and provides valuable clarity in contested financial matters.

BUSINESS/PARTNERSHIPS DISPUTES

Partnership disputes can undermine a business and lead to heated litigation. Resolute can provide insight and clarity to help untangle the issues to manage risk and maximize value.

Contact Resolute today to learn more about our litigation support services.

