

MANAGING DIRECTOR, CORPORATE ACCOUNTING

RESOLUTE

problems solved.

Resolute is an independent business advisory firm focused on identifying problems and implementing innovative, long-term solutions for middle market companies facing challenging times. Our team of industry leaders become your partners in securing, resolving, and enhancing financial assets and business operations through a broad range of services.

Description

- Exceptional financial modeling and spreadsheet capabilities: cash flow analysis, budgeting, forecasting, valuation and bookkeeping
- Comparing financial performance of operations with operating plans and standards; reporting and interpreting the financial results from operations; reporting significant trends and variances and contributing toward the formulation of future policies and strategies which will enhance overall profitability and operating efficiency
- Assess all assets for liquidity value and marketing strategy
- Ability to develop a standard 13-week cash flow model and forecast cash
- Compose technical reports that are distributed to all parties & the Court
- Manage creditor claims process from initial claim to distribution
- Identify emerging opportunities to add greater value for clients
- Communicate with clients and their employees, attorneys, and consultants related to financial analyses and operational issues
- Demonstrate understanding of client information - including strategy, services, stakeholders, and competitive landscape
- Recognize and apply global and regional social, economic and other impactful policy trends, and translating those insights into actionable ideas
- Propose goals and corresponding tasks to obtain the overall objective
- Effectively manage multiple accounts with project deadlines simultaneously

Requirements

- Accounting, Economics or Finance Degree with 3+ years' of experience in a financial reporting and analytical role, corporate accounting or controller role
- Corporate Accounting or controller experience preferred
- Proficient in QuickBooks and Microsoft Office Suite Program
- Attention to detail with excellent written and verbal communication skills including email etiquette
- Managerial capabilities preferred with and always-on mentality and super-responsive nature
- "Roll up sleeves" attitude to learn new systems and procedures
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment with tight deadlines

Summary

We work with middle market companies in transition and this person is a key member of a small accounting/finance team that supports the firm. Our culture is highly entrepreneurial and energetic, with lots of autonomy. Our Managing Directors all have a lot of responsibility and take pride in their role.

Compensation

Annual Salary: BOE

Bonus opportunity; health benefits; paid vacation and 401k programs

Please submit resumes to info@resolutecommercial.com